SORROW... AND HOPE

The Kigali Genocide Memorial is the final resting-place for over 250,000 victims of the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi. It is also a driver in Rwanda's extraordinary journey towards healing and reconstruction. Built into Rwanda's national schools curriculum, life-changing peace education developed at the Memorial now inspires educators internationally.

DISCOVER

Book a guided tour or use one of our audio guides with the map overleaf. Take a rose with it to place in memory.

REFLECT

Stop at the Memorial Cafe to take in what you have seen. Reflect over a coffee or meal, alone or with friends.

SUPPORT

WHO WE ARE

The Kigali Genocide Memorial was created through a collaboration between the Government of Rwanda and the Aegis Trust in 2004, and Aegis continues to manage the Memorial on behalf of the Rwandan National Commission for the Fight Against Genocide (CNLG). Through peace education in Rwanda and beyond, Aegis enables people to give up revenge, lay down weapons, and champion humanity.
